The Kelowna Retired Teachers' Association established an old fashioned one-room school classroom like it was in the 1940's and 50's. To go back to the past and relive those days — all are welcome to visit the classroom. Visits are by appointment only and can be arranged by calling: Sig Ottenbreit, the classroom teacher, who will give a presentation.

*He can be contacted at:

School classes, individuals, grad classes or any other groups are welcome. The classroom can accommodate groups up to 35 people at a time.

Central School was built in 1913 and opened its first class in January 1914 and is now a Heritage Building.
